Application for Enrollment in EPH 555b, Practicum in Climate Change, Sustainability, and Public Health

Basic Information

Name:

Email:

School/Department and Year of Graduation:

Background and Interests

What are your academic experience and interests? (200 words maximum)

Why do you want to enroll in this course? What can you contribute to your team? (200 words maximum)

Project preferences

Please rank the projects in which you would like to participate (do not rank a project that does not interest you).

Project	Rank
Yale Food Waste Reduction Initiative
Air Quality Impacts of the ExxonMobil Refinery in Beaumont, Texas (some or all members of the team will need to spend spring break in Beaumont, paid for by the course)
Air Quality Impacts of the Stone's Throw Landfill in Tallassee, Alabama (some or all members of the team will need spend spring break in Tallassee, paid for by the course)
Climate and Health Benefits of Solar-Powered Pump-Out Boats
Carbon footprint impact of reduction in unnecessary prostate biopsies (some members of the team will need to be proficient in SAS)

Resume and transcript: Please attach your resume and transcript (can be unofficial transcript).

Please send your completed application to Dr. Robert Dubrow by Wednesday, November 15, 2017.