

Senior Essays, Advisors, and Post Grad Experience

Environmental Humanities

2017-2021

Sarah Adams, BA '20: “Jappalachia”: Unlikely Connections Between Japan’s Shinetsu Trail and the Appalachian Trail, Advisor: Daniel Botsman
Post Grad: North Georgia Community Coordinator at Appalachian Trail Conservancy 2020-present

Addison Luck, BA '20: Upholding Nature’s Rights in Ecuador: Identifying Problems and Providing Solutions, Advisor: Doug Kysar
Post Grad: Samuel Huntington Fund and Cohen Public Service Award recipient supported project aimed at reincorporating and strengthening Native Hawaiian environmental and cultural practices on Kaua’I 2020-2021; Case Clerk at Sher Edling LLP 2021-present

Jordan Schmolka, BA'20: What’s Under the City? Constructing and Contesting the Natural in Settler Colonial New York, Advisor: Laura Barraclough
Post Grad: Research Fellow at Haida Gwaii Museum at Kaay Llnagaay 2020-present

Alexandra Weyerhaeuser, BA '20: Planting the Seeds of Environmental Education: Historic and Philosophical Origins, Higher Education, and Primary and Secondary School, Advisor: John Wargo
Post Grad: Program Coordinator at Green City Market 2020-2021; Yale School of Environment Five-Year MEM Program '22

Jordan Boudreau, BA '19: Living Space: Forging Ecological Civilization through a Reimagining of Our Cities, Advisor: John Grim
Post Grad: Architectural Designer & Drafter, Debra Beck Lennox Architect 2021-present

Franklin Eccher, BA '19: The Hardier Fish: An Environmental History of Trout and Grayling Management in the Montana “Trout Paradise”, Advisor: Paul Sabin
Post Grad: Programs and Operations Fellow 2019-20; Programs and Operations Manager at Outer Coast 2020-present

Cayley Geffen, BA' 19: Monumental Conflict: The Role of Local and Regional Conflicts In the Opposition to Bears Ears National Monument, Advisor: Justin Farrell
Post Grad: Investment Management Development Program 2019-2021; Analyst, IB ESG Client Solutions, Credit Suisse 2021-present

Myles Odermann, BA '19: The River of Dreams: The Garrison Diversion, Environmental Politics, and the End of the Reclamation Era, Advisor: Paul Sabin
Post Grad: Legal Assistant at Shearman & Sterling LLP 2019-present

Senior Essays, Advisors, and Post Grad Experience

Environmental Humanities

2017-2021

Arabelle Schoenberg, BA '19: GROWING ROOTS: Strengthening Place-Attachment Through a Critical Pedagogy of Place, Advisor: Amity Doolittle

Alan Diaz-Santana, BA '18: Remembering the 1966 Melon Strike and March in the Rio Grande Valley of Texas, Advisor: Stephen Pitti

Post Grad: Executive Board High School Representative at Texas American Federation of Teachers 2018-present

Amanda Mei, BA '18: The Spirit that Moves Us: A study of the spiritual and sustainable development of intentional communities, Advisor: Carol Carpenter

Post Grad: Oxford University Oriental Studies '18; Environmental Law Institute Peacebuilding Program 2019; The Wilson Center China Environment Forum Intern 2019; East-West Center in Washington Research Intern 2020; Johns Hopkins University Paul H. Nitze School of Advanced International Studies '21

Calvin Harrison, BA '17: "If You Don't Protect The Companion of the Environment, There Won't Be an Environment": Naqab Bedouin and Sustainability at Wadi Attir, Advisor: James Scott

Post Grad: Editor and researcher focusing on Egypt and Libya at Frontier 2018-present

Grace Stonecipher, BA '17: Participation in Ecosystem-Scale Research: A Case Study of the Salish Sea Marine Survival Project, Advisor: Carol Carpenter

Post Grad: Center for Large Landscape Conservation, Junior Program Officer 2017-2019 and International Program Coordinator & Geospatial Analyst 2020-present